

MADRAS HINDU RELIGIOUS AND CHARITABLE ENDOWMENTS (MYSORE AMENDMENT) BILL, 1963.

Mr. SPEAKER.—This Bill also can be finished within ten minutes.

Sri ANGADI CHANNABASAPPA.—It was intended not to take up that Bill to-day. Of course, it is an important amendment to the Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowment Act. I think it needs some study. I do not think we are in a position to take up that Bill now. I know in Madras, there are several amendments to the original Act. I think in the light of those amendments, we have to study this amendment.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I believe that there is a uniform Bill which is going to be introduced in respect of all. This Bill is introduced urgently for the purpose of saving the situation in Bellary.

Sri ANGADI CHANNABASAPPA.—Whether it is going to save the situation at all is to be examined.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I do not know that. I will leave it at that.

Sri M. V. KRISHNAPPA.—If the Hon'ble Member wants that it should be postponed, we have no objection, Sir.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Then we will take up the next Bill. The Mysore Agricultural Produce Market Bill, 1962.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Motion moved :

“That the Mysore Agricultural Produce Markets Bill, 1962 be taken into consideration.”

I have a premonition that it is likely to be referred to a select committee.

Sri RAMAKRISHNA HEGDE.—Yes, Sir.

Mr. SPEAKER.—With that background, we can take up the discussion of the Bill.

Sri RAMAKRISHNA HEGDE.—Sir, the Bill is intended to provide for uniform law for the better regulation of buying and selling of agricultural products, throughout the new State.

As Hon'ble Members are aware, today in the new State of Mysore, there are five different Acts that are in force namely, the Mysore Agricultural Marketing Act 1939, The Bombay Agricultural Marketing Act 1939, the Madras Commercial Crops Marketing Act, 1933, The Hyderabad Agricultural products Marketing Act, 1939 and the Coorg Agricultural Market-
